Commissioner Hebert Suspends Local Business for Selling Alcohol to Minors

Baton Rouge: Louisiana Office of Alcohol & Tobacco Control (ATC) Commissioner, Troy Hebert ordered a $2,500 fine and sixty (60) day suspension of the State alcoholic beverage permit issued to Pilot's Pub, located at 3822 West Congress, Lafayette, LA 70506, after finding the bar guilty of its 4th violation of selling alcohol to minors within a three year period.

The past two citations were issued within six months of each other and are the result of undercover operations ordered by Commissioner Hebert following receipt of complaints from citizens regarding underage drinking at Pilot's Pub. During one of the operations ATC agents witnessed three (3) of the four (4) bartenders working sell alcohol to a minor.

In affirming the suspension Commissioner Hebert stated, "My goal as Commissioner of ATC is to assist responsible businesses, but impose severe consequences on businesses that continuously break the law and endanger minors."
